

Aquarian Unit Will Meet

Harbor Aquarian Society will meet Tuesday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 p.m., at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market, across from the city hall. President Charles Wade will conduct the business meeting. Slide on the spawning of tropical fish will be shown by Jim Ellis of San Fernando. There will also be a guest speaker. The fish of the month will be "Your Favorite Fish." The grand prize, a 15 gallon tank, will be awarded as well as a five gallon tank and hood as door prize.

Reports will also be heard from members who will attend the first annual Aquarists of the Western States convention at Echo Park next Sunday.

Junior aquarists are invited to attend this meeting as well as any person interested in tropical fish.

Sorority to Observe 81st Anniversary

Members of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority will meet for a luncheon at noon on Saturday, Oct. 29, at a restaurant in Hollywood Riviera. The group will be celebrating the 81st anniversary of the founding of Gamma Phi Beta at Syracuse University.

Nationally, Gamma Phi Beta supports three summer camps for underprivileged children. Local groups in Southern California do volunteer work at the Good Samaritan Hospital and have donated much needed equipment for the care of the premature babies.

Mrs. Wiley Peterson of Hermosa Beach, is in charge of the plans for the luncheon. Assisting her are Mrs. Robert Hamer of Hollywood Riviera, Mrs. Robert L. Rise of Redondo Beach, and Mrs. Paul A. Winn of Palos Verdes. The province secretary, Mrs. H. R. Herold of San Marino, will be guest of honor.

All members of this area are invited to attend. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Wiley Peterson or Mrs. Robert Hamer.

MOTHERS ORGANIZE . . . to assist the girls of Scout Troop 867 with their philanthropies and programs. The group met to organize at the home of Mrs. R. W. Baile, leader. New officers elected were, from left, Mrs. Rudolph G. Reyes, auditor; Mrs. Kenneth McVey, vice president; Mrs. Roscoe Anthony, president; Mrs. Rod Baile, scout leader; Mrs. Ray Andicocha, secretary. Back row, Mrs. Maurice Carriere, treasurer, and Mrs. John Arnesmeyer, parliamentarian.

Louise's NEW BUDGET Beauty Shop

Now At Last In Torrance PROFESSIONAL BEAUTY SERVICE AT A PRICE ALL CAN AFFORD

Louise's, recently remodeled and enlarged, brings professional permanent waving within the reach of all women. Two prices and only two prices.

Standard 4⁹⁵ Creme Oil 6⁹⁵

Complete with Haircut, Shampoo and Set. Quality materials and skilled operators combine to give guaranteed long lasting permanent waves.

No Appointment Needed

FAIRFAX 8-1248
2205 TORRANCE BLVD.

NEW ARRIVALS at the GAY SHOP

"GLORIA SWANSON IN ITALY"

has captured a spirit of quality. Understated simplicity headed in the direction on Chic. Certainly no price tag on this more than comfortable and wearable 2-piece effect textured crepe. Iridescent beads sewn on undertones of contrasting crepe. Mediterranean colors: Blue, Brown, Plum, and black.

Sizes 14 1/2 - 24 1/2

THE Gay SHOP

No Money Down! JOIN OUR BUDGET CLUB Pay As Little As $2 Weekly

1319 SARTORI, TORRANCE - FA 8-4563
OPEN FRIDAY NIGHTS 'TIL 9 P.M.

Jewish Group Meets Oct. 24

New officers of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center will preside at the regular meeting to be held Tuesday, Oct. 24, at the center, 14725 So. Gramercy Place. A short business session will be followed by a social evening with refreshments. All members and friends are invited to attend.

The Sisterhood elected officers at its meeting Oct. 11. They are Frieda Charney, president; Frieda Forbman, vice president; Rena Morenberg, treasurer; Bess Weinstein, corresponding secretary; and Selma Baumgarten, recording secretary. The Men's Club elected Norman Sparker as president and Dave Bauersock, secretary.

New officers of both organizations will be installed at a dinner-dance at Ciro's on Nov. 5. Norman Sparker is taking reservations.

Local Tri-Delts to Assist With 'Sleigh Bells' Benefit

Tri Delta Medical Research Committee of the Children's Hospital will honor and entertain its patronesses at a tea on Wednesday, Oct. 26, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Ernest Evans, 721 North Roxbury Rd., Beverly Hills.

The tea is an important highlight in the busy schedule of the committee as final preparations are made for the annual Sleigh Bells Benefit luncheon which will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 6, in the Biltmore Bowl, Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles. Information concerning the progress of the Tri Deltas' local service project will be given to the patronesses at the tea. In the past seven years over $38,000 raised through the presentation of the benefit has been given to the Los Angeles Children's Hospital for medical research. This has been devoted to the field of hematology, a study of diseases of the blood, for the past several years by the committee's award of a fellowship for that purpose.

Mrs. John Meschuk of El Segundo, will be among the Southland patronesses to be honored at the tea, Mrs. Meschuk has also been active in other hospital service projects and is a past president of Women's Auxiliary of the Community Hospital, Hawthorne.

In charge of plans for the affair is Mrs. James S. White of El Segundo, co-chairman with Mrs. D. G. Drommerhausen of Los Angeles. Mrs. White is also vice president of the committee. Hostesses from the South Bay Alliance of Tri Delta will be Mrs. James Cole, local president and Mrs. M. M. Muselman, past president. Others attending from the local alliance are Mmes. Keith A. Crown, Carl Stoffers and Walter D. Uptegraff.

In the receiving line greeting their guest will be Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Emery Deary, president of the hospital committee. Other officers who will assist are Mmes. James S. White, Warren White, Stephen T. Crosby and E. J. Porteous.

Mothers Club Organized

An organizational meeting for a Mothers Club of Girl Scout Troop 867 was held Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. R. W. Baile, Scout leader. Elected to serve as officers of the new club were: Mrs. Roscoe Anthony Jr., president; Mrs. Kenneth A. McVey, vice president; Mrs. Ray Andicocha, secretary; Mrs. Maurice Carriere, treasurer; Mrs. Rudolph G. Reyes, auditor; Mrs. John Arnesmeyer, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Shirley Ross, ways and means chairman.

The group will serve as a tie-in between the troops and their leaders.

A program each month will feature phases of scouting. A film showing the structure of Girl Scouting and narration will soon be seen by the group.

In the troop, there are 24 girls, who take part in affairs of the community. They provide child care for the regular meetings of the Peppy School PTA, sponsor of the troop.

The girls also prepare homemade goodies for a booth at the annual school carnival and they carry on an extensive program in handicraft, making an assortment of beautiful Christmas gifts. They also provide hand-made cloth dolls for hospitalized children.

The next meeting of the Mothers Club is scheduled for Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m. at Mrs. Maurice Carriere's home. Mothers of all the girls of the troop are invited to attend.

SEWING CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY

Mrs. Jennie Beck will be hostess for the pot luck luncheon meeting of the Sewing Club of the Harbor City American Legion Auxiliary, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Clyde Gibson will preside over the business portion of the meeting which will be held in the patio of Crestview Lodge, locale of Mrs. Beck's home.

PARENTS GROUP WILL MEET

The Parent-Teacher Fellowship of the Calvary Baptist Elementary School, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., will hold its October meeting next Friday night, Oct. 21, 7:30 p.m., using the theme "Back to School," in which the parents will be given the opportunity to visit their children's class rooms and see how the teachers teach the pupils.

A "barber shop" quartet will present special vocal selections, according to Mrs. Vernelle Thornton-Trump, music chairman. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Indians Are Studied by Church Group

Needs of the Navajo Indians on reservations in New Mexico were stressed in an illustrated lecture given at the October meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. C. Burd of the Shepherd Home at Farmington, New Mexico, was the guest speaker.

The devotionals on the topic "They Are My People" were given by Mrs. Paul Slyh and Mrs. Charles Ward.

The Indian theme was carried out in the table decorations which included Indian dolls, colored corn and stalks.

The morning session was opened with a meeting of the prayer group under the direction of Mrs. Paul Slyh. A business session followed with Mrs. C. P. Olson, presiding.

Installation Set for Nov. 2

Torrance Memorial Chapter of Gold Star Mothers will install re-elected officers in ceremonies to be held at 2 p.m., Nov. 2 in the American Legion Hall on Border Ave.

Mrs. Anna Held and Mrs. Lucy Vigil will install the following officers; Mrs. Gertrude Dobson, Gardena, president; Mrs. Ruby Ashcroft, Redondo Beach, first vice president; Mrs. Ida Creighton, Torrance, second vice president; Mrs. Orfa Wilson of Redondo, chaplain; Mrs. Phyllis Hamilton, Lomita, secretary; Mrs. Violet Brooks of Torrance, treasurer; Mrs. Martha Evans, Sergeant at arms; Mrs. Opal Andrews of Gardena, historian; Mrs. Edith Erbe, color bearer; Mrs. Regina Cunningham and Mrs. Helen Smith, of Torrance color guards.

SWEATER SALE JUST IN TIME FOR THE SWEATER SEASON

REGULAR $4.98 and $5.95

GIRLS' NYLON SWEATERS $2⁰⁰ and $3⁹⁹

• CARDIGANS • PULLOVERS

• SIZES 7 to 14

REGULAR $2.98 and $3.98

GIRLS' NYLON SWEATERS $2⁹⁹ and $3⁹⁹

SIZES 3 to 6x

PLAIN STYLES and SOME FANCYS!

SQUIRE STYLE SHOPPE

1313 SARTORI - TORRANCE

PIANOS TO RENT BUY

NEW • BALDWIN • USED

FICHT PIANO CO.

611 S. GARDEN ST. SAN PEDRO TE 2-6001

SOON!

a complete line of

WARNER'S

Bras and Foundations

* Trade Mark

MOORE'S

WOMENS' WEAR

(FORMERLY ADAMS DRESS SHOP)

1274 SARTORI AVENUE TORRANCE

It Was a Howling Success!!

Delighted describes the members of the Las Vegas Woman's Club this week. They are jubilant over their successful fourth annual pancake breakfast and country fair staged last Sunday morning at the El Retiro Park. 1600 breakfasts were served and last count of the proceeds had surpassed the $1,000 mark. The funds, of course, go to the club's youth and welfare work.

Bouquets are going to Carolina Cotton and Jimmy Wagner for their entertainment. With no loud speaker and suffering from a cold, Miss Cotton, a true trouper, sang any number of songs and led community singing. Club members also send special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Veltman who assisted with the affair.

Sell outs were proclaimed for the baked sale on Saturday, the penny pitch, white elephant and home-craft concessions.

Cressy Home Setting for Club Meeting

Mrs. William Cressy, 22414 Warmside, was hostess to members of the Beau Jardin Garden Club Wednesday evening, Oct. 12.

During a business meeting plans were discussed concerning contributions for the Harbor area Exceptional Children's Foundation Bazaar, to be given later this year.

A leaf identification game was played with Mrs. Myron Longwell and Mrs. Robert Hill winning prizes. The door prize was won by Mrs. Leo Hayes. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Albert Yackie gave an interesting talk on "The October Garden."

Present at the meeting were Mmes. Phillip Rice, John Blair, William Cressy, William Adkins, Kenneth Moore, George Smith, Leo Hayes, Albert Yackie, Robert Hill and L. D. Durt.

Guests were Mmes. Myron Longwell, Henry Baglioso, R. F. Ebelnesser, Bernice Terenay, the latter two are members of the Greenhumber Club.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leo Hayes, 22425 Warmside Ave., on Oct. 26. The guest speaker will be A. H. Ward of the Paramount Nursery.

GUILDS PLAN BUSY MONTH

October will be a busy month for the Guilds of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church who are planning a number of events to be held in their school hall, 255th and Eshelman Ave.

St. Jude's Guild will entertain with a luncheon today, under the direction of Mrs. Rosalie Mazzacavallo.

The semi-annual rummage sale by the St. Theresa Guild will be held Oct. 21 and 22 with Mrs. Arthur Disterheft in charge of arrangements. Those wishing to donate articles are asked to contact Guild members.

A food sale will be held Oct. 23 following all Sunday church services. Hot dishes, salads and patery will be offered by members of St. Francis, St. Anthony, and Our Lady of the Rosary Guilds.

CHURCH DINNER IS TONIGHT

All members of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church are invited to attend an all parish pot luck dinner tonight at 6 o'clock in the church hall.

The event is being sponsored by all Guilds and organizations of the parish.

Speaker of the evening will be Rev. Canon W. Clinton Billig, executive assistant of Rt. Rev. Francis Eric Bloy, Bishop.

Families are asked to bring a covered dish, salad or dessert.

GREET DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Langford, 22615 Gaycrest, are announcing the birth of a daughter, Oct. 13 at the Gardena Hospital. The six pound girl has been named Jennifer Lee. She is being welcomed by a thirteen-month-old sister Ella Mae. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harlan of Torrance; Mrs. Florence Langford, of Hermosa Beach, and V. C. Langford, of Chanuk, Mont.

AUXILIARY MEETS

Letter Carriers' auxiliary will meet Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the Allen Nance home at 22634 Crosshill. This will be a social meeting and all members are invited to attend.

CALENDAR TIME AGAIN . . . and Torrance Girl Scouts are selling calendars to build up their funds. This is a voluntary troop fund raising activity. A purchase is an investment for the Scout program for the coming year. Mrs. W. E. Walton is district calendar coordinator. Pictured displaying the calendars are, from left, Karen Crossman, Troop 1006; Bonnie Stanton, Troop 1006, and Susan Sharon, Brownie Troop 1683. As a Red Feather agency the girls will not sell during the Community Chest campaign, Oct. 24 to Nov. 18.

TEENS we've got news for you!

WE CARRY A COMPLETE LINE OF SUBTEEN AND TEEN APPAREL AND ACCESSORIES.

SANDY'S TEEN SHOP

(Formerly Byrnes Teen Shop)

216 HERMOSA AVE. IN REDONO TRIANGLE